

Topic: Controlling inflation in Vietnam

Sign: LC 230

Author: Hoang Thanh Tung

Major: Political Economics

Year: 2007

Lecturer: Assoc.Prof.Dr. Ngo Tri Long

Research purposes:

- Suggesting some solutions to maintain and control the inflation in Vietnam in the coming period.
- Generalizing the theoretical and practical points in the relation between inflation and the economic growth process in order to learn from the experiences of what is necessary for Vietnam
- Determining the cause and the development trend of inflation and its effects on the economy in Vietnam
- Suggesting the suitable solutions to control inflation in Vietnam in the coming years

New contributions:

- Analyzing the origin and causes of the inflation in the economic development process
- Pointing out the relationship between inflation and related factors such as: economic growth, money supply, interest rate, exchange rate, price index etc.
- Recommending the solutions to control inflation in Vietnam