A GUIDE TO ETHICS

Steven Luper
Trinity University
Contents

1 Introduction: What Is Ethics?
- Simple Moral Reasoning: The Case of the Fraudulent Doc
- Complex Moral Reasoning: Two Tragic Cases
- Defending Moral Principles
- Metaethics
- Ethics
- An Overview of Normative Theories
  - What Does It Take to Live as Well as Possible?
  - What Must We Do?
- Questions for Reflection
- Further Readings
- Notes

2 Subjectivism: Is Morality an Illusion?
- The Humean Being
- Skepticism
- Two Forms of Subjectivism
- Subjectivism and Argumentation
- Objectivity
- Expanding the Circle
- Questions for Reflection
Further Readings 34
Notes 35

3 Cultural Relativism: Does Each Culture Invent Its Own Morality? 37
Alternatives to Universalism 39
The Case for Cultural Relativism 40
Assessing the Argument from Diversity 41
Consequences of Cultural Relativism 44
Toleration 48
Questions for Reflection 49
Further Readings 51
Notes 51

4 The Divine Command View: Is Morality God's Invention? 54
The Divine Command Theory and Human Nature 56
The Natural Law Theory 59
The Argument from Natural Law Theory 61
Test Tube Babies and Clones 62
Questions for Reflection 63
Further Readings 65
Notes 66

5 Hedonism: Is the Pleasant Life the Best Life? 68
Value Hedonism Defended 69
The Appeal to Nature 70
Psychological Hedonism 70
First Defense: The Argument by Extended Satisfaction 70
Second Defense: The Appeal to Introspection 71
Counterargument: The Hedonistic Paradox 72
The Electronic Voluptuary 74
Gautama and Epicurus: Negative Happiness 75
Epicurus on Death 76
8 Utilitarianism: Does Duty Consist in Maximizing the Collective Good? 121
   Classical Utilitarianism and Extreme Altruism 122
   Reservations about Classical Utilitarianism 126
      Forcibly Harming People to Benefit Others 126
      Forcibly Harming People to End Their Suffering 127
      Requiring Strict Impartiality 128
   Two-Tiered Utilitarianism 128
      Considerations in Favor of Two-Tiered Utilitarianism 129
      Objections to Two-Tiered Utilitarianism 130
      Responses by Two-Tiered Utilitarians 131
   Optimizing versus Aggregating 132
   Acts and Omissions: Killing and Letting Die 133
   Questions for Reflection 135
   Further Readings 137
   Notes 138

9 Kantianism: Is Duty Respect for Humanity? 141
   Morality versus Prudence 142
   Applying the Categorical Imperative 144
   Consequences and Intentions 148
   Absolutism and Conflicts of Duties 150
   Respect for Persons 152
   Autonomy 154
   Diane’s Suicide 155
   Questions for Reflection 156
   Further Readings 157
   Notes 159

10 Contractarianism: Is Duty the Outcome of an Ideal Agreement? 161
   Hobbes and Interest-Based Contractarianism 162
      The State of Nature and Absolute Sovereignty 163
      Interest-Based Contractarianism 165
11 The Contemporary Debate: What Are Some Contemporary Approaches to Ethics? 180

A Moral Framework 180
Communitarianism 184
Virtue Ethics 186
Feminism and the Ethics of Care 187
Private and Public Spheres of Life 191
Questions for Reflection 193
Further Readings 194
Notes 195

Index 197