

TEACHING AND TRAINING KOREAN STUDIES
IN THE COLLEGE OF FOREIGN LANGUAGE - HANOI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY
THE REALITY AND TENDENCY
OF DEVELOPMENT

Hoang Thi Yen

*Faculty of Russian – Korean language and culture
College of Foreign languages
Vietnam National University, Hanoi*

Teaching and training South Korean language and culture has started since 1995. For the last 7 years, lecturers and students of the South Korean language and culture Department have been overcoming difficulties in lacking material and technical basis; staff of teachers; teaching and learning programme; teaching materials, reference books and so on. Nevertheless, some remarkable achievements have been made. Training well qualified teachers to meet the demand of teaching, building up a systematical a dequate syllabus, gradually improving and upgrading teaching books, encouraging lecturers and students to carry out science research and to renovate the methods of teaching and learning have proed efficient ways of solving the ostacles and insiefficiency of the South Korean Studies, and improving the quality of teaching South Korean language, helping the Department of South Korean language and culture to become one of the most prestigious centres of teaching and training South Korean language and culture in Vietnam.