Racing to Regionalize

Democracy, Capitalism, and Regional Political Economy

edited by Kenneth P. Thomas
Mary Ann Tétérault
Contents

Introduction
Kenneth P. Thomas and Mary Ann Tétreault 1

1 Theories of Integration in a New Context:
The Gulf Cooperation Council
Fred H. Lawson 7

2 Assessing the "New" Integration: The Mercosur Trade Agreement
Barbara Jenkins 33

3 Foreign Direct Investment in the Context of Regionalism:
The Case of APEC
Davis B. Bobrow and Robert T. Kudrle 57

4 Who Got What and Why:
Constructing North American Free Trade
William P. Avery and H. Richard Friman 87

5 Trade Liberalization and Environmental Regulations:
Regional Interests and Ideas in Europe and North America
Erik Beukel 113

6 Citizenship Policy in a Global Framework:
The Case of the European Union
Antje Wiener 141

7 Democracy, Human Rights, and the Transformation of Civil Society: The Case of the New North America
Laura Macdonald 167
Commentaries

8 Regional Integration and Critique: Raising the Possibility of Counterhegemony
   Teresa Healy 193

9 The Middle East: Eternally Out of Step with History?
   Paul Aarts 201

10 On the Politico-Economic Conditions for Maintaining Accountability and Sovereignty in the Era of Globalization
   Hartmut Elsenhans 211

List of Acronyms 221
Bibliography 225
List of Contributors and Commentators 259
Index 263
About the Book 275