

RA (4)

(992)

COMPANION TO

Contemporary Musical Thought

Volume 1

EDITED BY

John Paynter

Tim Howell

Richard Orton

Peter Seymour

LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

VOLUME I

Notes on contributors	xi
Preface	xxxi
Introduction JOHN PAYNTER	xxxiii
1 Music, the modern world, and the burden of history WILFRID MELLERS	1
PART I PEOPLE AND MUSIC	23
2 Music and people: the import of structure and form JOHN PAYNTER	25
3 Music, non-music and the soundscape R. MURRAY SCHAFER	34
4 Music in concert and music in the background: two poles of musical realization HANS-WERNER HEISTER	46
5 Public performance and the concert as categories of musical action IRMGARD BONTINCK	72

6	What makes music musical? KEITH SWANWICK	82
7	The action value of musical experience and learning THOMAS A. REGELSKI	105
8	Musical as cultural text JOHN SHEPHERD	128
9	Music and the arts in pre-Renaissance and Renaissance worship: a question of 'expression' PETER LEHURAY	156
10	Handel's ghost: the composer's posthumous reputation in the eighteenth century ELLEN T. HARRIS	208
11	On patronage: 'Musick, that mind-tempering art' ANTHONY ROOLEY	226
12	Cloverleaf: a little narrative with several 'off-ramps' LOU HARRISON	248
13	Speculative music: the numbers behind the notes JOSCELYN GODWIN	256
14	Text, context, music ISTVAN ANHALT	272
15	On making music out of music EDWIN LONDON	290
16	Verso-l'uno WALTER BRANCHI	300
	PART II THE TECHNOLOGY OF MUSIC	317
17	Musical, cultural and educational implications of digital technology RICHARD ORTON	319

18	A technological approach to music B. RICHARD MOORE	326
19	Towards a new age in the technology of computer music PETER WANNING	338
20	Electroacoustic music and the soundscape: the inner and outer world BARRY TRUAX	374
21	Composition with machines CURTIS ROADS	380
22	Artistic necessity, context orientation, configurable space CRAIG R. HARRIS	426
23	Flying through a musical space: about real-time composition JOEL CHADABE	434
24	Music and image on film and video: an absolute alternative DAVID KERSHAW	466
25	New musical instruments in the computer age: amplified performance systems and related examples of low-level technology HUGH DAVIES	500
26	The listening imagination: listening in the electroacoustic era DENIS SMALLEY	514
27	Composers and audiences: new relationships in the technological age BRUCE PENNYCOOK	533
28	Music and technology: problems and possibilities TREVOR WISHART	565
29	Composing sounds with computers JEAN-CLAUDE RISSET	583

PART III THE STRUCTURE OF MUSIC	601
30 Does it really mean anything? Some aspects of musical meaning LORENZ REITAN	621
31 Musical analysis: commentaries JONATHAN DUNN	634
32 Analysis and psychoanalysis: Wagner's musical metaphors CHRISTOPHER WINTLE	650
33 Analysis and performance: the search for a middleground TIM HOWELL	692
34 Analysis and the composer ROBERT SHERIDAN JOHNSON	713
35 New directions: the conception and development of a composition JONATHAN HARVEY	736
36 Morcy Feldman is dead JAMES FULKERSON	751
37 From improvisation to composition RICHARD ORTON	762
38 Improvisation NEIL SORRELL	776
39 Improvisation, cognition and education ERICA CLARKE	787
40 Psychological structures in music: core research 1980-1990 JOHN A. SLOBODA	803

41	Aural training: material and method GEORGE PRATT	840
42	Aspects of melody: an examination of the structure of Jewish and Gregorian chants YEHEZKEL BRAUN	858
43	Music, number and rhetoric in the early Middle Ages JOHN STEVENS	885
	PART IV THE INTERPRETATION OF MUSIC	911
44	Oratory and performance PETER SEYMOUR	913
45	Present and past: intermediaries and interpreters WILFRID MELLERS	920
46	Performance practice studies: some current approaches to the Early Music phenomenon PETER WILLIAMS	931
47	Renaissance attitudes to performance: a contemporary application ANTHONY ROOLEY	948
48	Musical instruments and performers of the past FRANCIS BAINES	961
49	Pst . . . Pst . . . Are you listening? Hearing voices from yesterday ISTVAN ANHALT	977
50	Historical approaches to violin playing DUNCAN DRUCE	993
51	Vocal consort style and tunings ROGERS COVEY-CRUMP	1020

52	Authentic pronunciation for Early Music ALISON WRAY	1081
53	Liturgical reconstructions: an apologia and some guidelines GRAHAM DIXON	1065
54	'Anthemes for Versus and Chorus. . . Apt for Viols and Voyces': the development of the English consort anthem, with some approaches to performance practice JOHN BRYAN	1079
55	'An Addicion of Wyer Stringes beside the Ordenary Stringes': the origin of the baryton PETER HOLMAN	1098
56	Producer for Early Music: a cog in the mechanism of musical life KLAUS L. NEUMANN	1116
57	Lutoslawski and a view of musical perspective PHILIP WILBY	1127
	Index	1147