LEO TOLSTOY

War and Peace

Translated from the Russian by Louise and Aylmer Maude

VOLUME 1

EVERYMAN'S LIBRARY

Alfred A. Knopf New York Toronto

96
CONTENTS

VOLUME I

Introduction ........................................ xi
Select Bibliography ................................ xxx
Chronology ........................................... xxxxiv
Principal Characters ................................ xlvi
Table of Dates ........................................ xlviii
Maps ..................................................... 1

BOOK ONE

PART I

1-4 Anna Pavlovna Scherer’s soirée .................. 3
5-6 Pierre at Prince Andrew’s and at Anatole
Kuragin’s. Dolokhov’s bet ............................ 26
7 A name-day at the Rostovs’ ........................ 42
8-11 Natasha and Boris ................................ 47
12 Anna Mikhaylovna and Boris go to the dying Count Bezukhov’s. ........................... 59
13 Pierre at his father’s house; talks with Boris. 64
14 Countess Rostova and Anna Mikhaylovna ...... 69
15-16 Dinner at the Rostov’s. Marya Dmitrievna .... 71
17 Sonya and Natasha. Nicholas sings. The
  Daniel Cooper ........................................ 81
18 At Count Bezukhov’s, Prince Vasili and
  Catiche ............................................... 87
19-20 Anna Mikhaylovna and Pierre at Count
  Bezukhov’s ......................................... 95
21 Anna Mikhaylovna and Catiche struggle for the inlaid portfolio ................................ 104
WAR AND PEACE

22 Bald Hills. Prince N. A. Bolkonsky. Princess Mary's correspondence with Julie Karagina 109
23-4 Prince Andrew at Bald Hills , , , , , 117
25 Prince Andrew leaves to join the army. Princess Mary gives him an icon , , , 127

PART II

1-2 Review near Braunau. Zherkov and Dolokhov , , , , , , 137
3 Kutuzov and an Austrian general. Le malheureux Mack. Zherkov's foolery , , , 159
4 Nicholas and Denisov. Telyanin and the missing purse , , , , , , 157
5-6 Nicholas in trouble with his fellow-officers , , , 166
7-8 Crossing the Enns. Burning the bridge. Rostov's baptism of fire , , , , , 172
9 Prince Andrew sent with despatches to the Austrian court. The Minister of War , , 186
10 Prince Andrew and Bilibin , , , , , 191
11 Hippolyte Kuragin and les nôtres , , , 197
12 Prince Andrew received by the Emperor Francis. Bilibin's story of the Thabor Bridge 200
13-14 Prince Andrew returns to Kutuzov. Bagration sent to Hollabrunn. Napoleon's letter to Murat , , , , , 205
15 Prince Andrew reports to Bagration. Captain Tushin. Soldiers at the front. Dolokhov talks to a French grenadier , , , , , 215
16 Prince Andrew surveys the position. The first shot , , , , , , 221
17 Bagration in action. Tushin's battery. Setting Schön Grabern on fire , , , , , 223
18-19 Battle scenes. Quarrelsome commanders. Nicholas injured , , , , 228
20 Panic. Timokhin's counter-attack. Dolokhov's insistence. Tushin's battery. Prince Andrew sent to order him to retreat 238
PART III

1-2 Prince Vasili and Pierre. A soirée at Anna Pavlovna’s. Hélène’s name-day. Pierre’s marriage

3 Prince Vasili and Anatole visit Prince N. A. Bolkonsky. Princess Mary’s appearance

4 Lise, Mademoiselle Bourienne, Mary, Anatole, and old Bolkonsky

5 Her father’s opposition to Mary’s marrying. She finds Mademoiselle Bourienne and Anatole in the conservatory. Declines marriage

6 A letter from Nicholas. Sonya and Natasha

7 Nicholas visits Boris and Berg in camp. Nicholas tells of Schön Grabern. His encounter with Prince Andrew

8 The Emperor’s review of the army. Enthusiasm of Nicholas

9 Boris visits Prince Andrew at Olmütz. Prince Dolgorukov

10 Nicholas not in the action at Wischau. The Emperor. Nicholas’s devotion to him

11 Preparations for action. Dolgorukov’s opinion of Napoleon and of his position. Kutuzov’s depression

12 The Council of War. Weyrother’s plans. Kutuzov sleeps. Prince Andrew’s reflections

13 Rostov at the front. Visit of Bagration and Dolgorukov. Rostov sent to reconnoitre. Napoleon’s proclamation

14-19 Battle of Austerlitz. Prince Andrew badly wounded

vii
WAR AND PEACE

BOOK TWO

PART I

1 Nicholas home on leave ........................................ 379
2 Preparations for club dinner .................................. 387
3 The dinner. Bagration as guest of honour .................. 393
4 Pierre challenges Dolokhov .................................... 399
5 The duel ................................................................ 404
6 Pierre’s separation from Hélène ................................ 406
7 Andrew considered dead ........................................... 411
8 Lise’s confinement. Andrew arrives .......................... 415
9 Death of Lise .......................................................... 419
10 Denisov and Dolokhov at the Rostovs’ ....................... 422
11 Sonya declines Dolokhov’s proposal ........................ 426
12 Iogel’s ball. Denisov’s mazurka ............................... 428
13-14 Nicholas loses 43,000 rubles to Dolokhov ............... 432
15 Nicholas at home. Natasha sings ............................. 438
16 Nicholas tells his father of his losses. Denisov proposes to Natasha ................................................. 442

PART II

1-2 Pierre meets Bazdeev ............................................. 447
3-4 Pierre becomes a Freemason ................................ 456
5 Pierre repulses Prince Vasili .................................... 467
6 A soirée at Anna Pavlovna’s. Hélène takes up Boris .... 469
7 Hippolyte at Anna Pavlovna’s .................................. 474
8 Old Bolkonsky as commander-in-chief of the conscription. Andrew’s anxiety. A letter from his father ................. 475
9 Bilbin’s letter about the campaign. The baby convalescent ......................................................... 480
10 Pierre goes to Kiev and visits his estates. Obstacles to the emancipation of his serfs ......................... 484
11 He visits Prince Andrew .......................................... 489
12 Their talk on the ferry raft ..................................... 498
13 ‘God’s folk’ at Bald Hills ........................................ 501
14 Old Bolkonsky and Pierre ...................................... 505
| CONTENTS |
|----------|-----------------|----------------|
| 15       | Nicholas rejoins his regiment. Shortage of provisions | ......... | 508 |
| 16       | Denisov seizes transports of food, gets into trouble, is wounded | ......... | 512 |
| 17-18    | Nicholas visits him in hospital | ......... | 518 |
| 19       | Boris at Tilsit. Nicholas’s inopportune visit | ......... | 524 |
| 20       | He tries to present Denisov’s petition at the Emperor’s residence, but fails | ......... | 528 |
| 21       | Napoleon and Alexander as allies. Perplexity of Nicholas. ‘Another bottle’ | ......... | 532 |