East Asia

Tradition & Transformation  Revised Edition

John K. Fairbank,  Professor Emeritus
Edwin O. Reischauer,  Professor Emeritus
Albert M. Craig

Harvard University
Contents

Maps and Charts ix

Preface xi

The Pronunciation of Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Vietnamese xiii

1. The Setting of East Asian History 1

The Objectives of This Study / Land, Peoples, and Languages / China’s Geographical Setting / China’s Traditional Economy and Society

2. Early China: The Birth of a Civilization 17

The Archaeological Record / Early Chinese Traditions / The Chinese Writing System / Shang Culture / The Early Chou

The Later Chou / The Age of the Philosophers and the Classics / Confucianism and Taoism / Other Philosophic Schools

4. The First Chinese Empire: The Ch’in and Han Dynasties 55

Ch’in Creates the Empire / Han Receives the Mandate / Han Thought and Scholarship / The Dynastic Cycle / The Later Han / The End of the First Chinese Empire

5. The Regeneration of the Empire 83

The Challenge to the Chinese System / The Coming of Buddhism / The “Barbarians” Restore the Empire / The Sui and T’ang Dynasties / The Revival of Centralized Rule / The Absorption of Buddhism / The Growth of Chinese Culture
23. Imperial Japan: Democracy and Militarism

The Growth of Parliamentary Influence / Taishō Democracy / The Rise of Militarism / Japan at War

24. China: From Monarchy to Warlordism

The Late Ch'ing Reforms / The Revolution of 1911 / The Republic's Decline into Warlordism

25. The Rise and Decline of Nationalist China

The Revolution in Thought and Culture / The Background of the Nationalist Revolution / The Kuomintang's Rise to Power / The Decade of the Nanking Government / Japan's Aggression in China

26. The New Japan

World War II in East Asia / The American Occupation and the Yoshida Ministries, 1945–1954 / Social and Political Change in an Era of High Growth / A New Epoch

27. The Rim Nations of East Asia: Vietnam, Taiwan, Korea, Hong Kong, and Singapore

Vietnam: From Colony to Communist State / Taiwan: From Colony to Republic / Korea: From Colony to Divided Nation / Hong Kong and Singapore

28. The People's Republic

The Rise of the Maoist Leadership / Founding the People's Republic / The Struggle Toward Socialism / The Cultural Revolution / Reform under Teng Hsiao-p'ing / Perspectives on China's Revolution

Illustration Acknowledgments

Index