Contents in Brief

Preface, xxi  Three suggested outlines for one-semester courses xxx

Part one  An introduction to American capitalism

1. The nature and method of economics, 1
2. An introduction to the economizing problem, 18
3. Pure capitalism and the circular flow, 37
4. The mechanics of individual prices: demand and supply, 48
5. The price system and the Five Fundamental Questions, 72
6. Mixed capitalism and the economic functions of government, 87
7. The facts of American capitalism: the private sector, 107
8. The facts of American capitalism: the public sector, 122

Part two  National income, employment, and fiscal policy

9. National income accounting, 143
10. Macroeconomic instability: unemployment and inflation, 168
11. Macroeconomics: an overview, 193
12. Classical and Keynesian theories of employment, 211
13. Equilibrium national output in the Keynesian model, 239
14. Fiscal policy, 269
15. Budget deficits and the public debt, 290
16. Inflation, unemployment, and aggregate supply, 307

Part three  Money, banking, and monetary policy

17. Money and banking, 335
18. How banks create money, 357
19. The Federal Reserve
20. Alternative views: monetarism and rational expectations, 402

Part four  Economic growth: analysis and policy

21. The economics of growth, 421
22. Economic growth: facts and issues, 437
23. Growth
Part five  The economics of the firm and resource allocation

24 Demand, supply, and elasticity: some applications, 481   25 Further topics in the theory of consumer demand, 503
26 The costs of production, 521   27 Price and output determination: pure competition, 543
28 Price and output determination: pure monopoly, 575
29 Price and output determination: monopolistic competition, 598
30 Price and output determination: oligopoly, 610
31 Production and the demand for economic resources, 630
32 The pricing and employment of resources: wage determination, 648
33 The pricing and employment of resources: rent, interest, and profits, 671
34 General equilibrium: the price system and its operation, 687

Part six  Current economic problems

35 Antitrust and regulation, 701   36 Rural economics: the farm problem, 720
37 Urban economics: the problems of the cities, 743
38 Income distribution: inequality, poverty, and discrimination, 767
39 Labor unions and their economic impact, 789
40 The radical critique: the economics of dissent, 811

Part seven  International economics and the world economy

41 International trade: comparative advantage and protectionism, 831
42 Exchange rates and the balance of payments, 854
43 International economic issues, 877
44 The economy of the Soviet Union, 894