

Topic: Application of trade sanction in the context of Vietnam international economic integration

Sign: LC 293

Author: Nguyen Huy Long.

Major: Political Economics

Year: 2007

Lecturer: Assoc.Prof. Dr. Luu Ngoc Trinh

Purposes and missions:

Purpose: Propose some major solutions to maximize the impact of trade sanction in the context of Vietnam international economic integration. The uninterrupted and comprehensive application of these solutions will have significant impacts: to promote the shift in economic structure, to step-by-step tune up the import-export management mechanism, to protect the domestic production and to put pressure on business competition and invigorate the entire economy.

Missions:

- + To clarify some rationale related to trade sanction
- + To evaluate the status of Vietnam history of trade sanction activities
- + Based on the above analysis to propose some major solutions to maximize the system of trade sanction in the context of Vietnam international economic integration.

New contributions:

- To systematize some basic disputations on trade sanctions in international trade.
- To research the application of trade sanctions in some countries in the world to extract the benefits for Vietnam.

- To analyze and evaluate the status of trade sanction application in Vietnam international trade in the past to come to understanding some successes, remaining problems and possible future challenges.
- To propose some directive viewpoints and basic solutions to maximize the trade sanction application in the context of international economic integration of Vietnam.