

Topic: Applying the advanced methods in determining value of enterprises in Vietnam

Sign: LC 232

Author: Ly Thi Thu Hien

Major: Business Administration

Year: 2007

Lecturer: Assoc.Prof. Dr. Tran Thi Thai Ha

Research purposes:

- Systematizing the theoretical factors in determining value of enterprises, finding out accepted international common methods to set value of enterprises
- Realistically determining the value evaluation of enterprises' worth in Vietnam in recent years, thus, pointing out the advantages and disadvantages of each value appreciation method being applied in Vietnam.
- Suggesting the solutions to apply the advanced methods in defining value of enterprises in Vietnam

New contribution:

- Finding out the nature of discount cash flow (DCF) in defining value of enterprises.
- Analyzing the real situation of the application of the value defining methods in Vietnam and pointing out the advantages and disadvantages of each method
- Suggesting some solutions to apply advanced methods in defining value of enterprises in Vietnam in the coming years.