

791
ELL
1985

2nd edition

A History of Film

JACK C. ELLIS
Northwestern University

PRENTICE-HALL, INC., ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, NEW JERSEY 07632

Contents

PREFACE xi

INTRODUCTION: CHARACTERISTICS OF FILM HISTORY 1

An Industrial Art, 2

A Composite Art, 3

A Collectively Created Art, 4

An Ephemeral and Inaccessible Art, 6

Books on Film Theory and General Histories, 7

1

DEVELOPMENTS PRIOR TO 1895 THAT LED TO THE MOTION PICTURE 10

Projection: The Magic Lantern, 11

Animation: Principle and Practice, 11

Photography: From Still to Stopped Motion, 15

The Motion Picture, 21

- Foreshadowings of Motion-Picture Technique in the Nineteenth-Century Theater*, 26
Films about the Period before 1895, 30
Books on the Period, 30

2

INTERNATIONAL CHILDHOOD OF A NEW MEDIUM AND ART, 1895-1914 31

- Brief Motion-Picture Records of Actuality and of Performances*, 31
Telling Stories through Staged and Filmed Pantomime, 35
Telling Stories through Filmic Means, 37
The Language of Film, 43
Increasing Films to Feature Length, 47
Films of the Period, 49
Books on the Period, 50

3

RISE OF THE AMERICAN FILM, 1914-1919 52

- The First Masterpieces*, 53
A Tradition of Screen Comedy is Established, 65
Emerging Patterns of Industry, 71
Films of the Period, 75
Books on the Period, 75

4

SCANDINAVIAN FILM, 1917-1924 77

- Denmark*, 77
Sweden, 81
Films of the Period, 85
Books on the Period, 85

5

GREAT GERMAN SILENTS, 1919-1925 86

- Predominant Types and Themes*, 87
Principal Technical and Stylistic Advances, 94
Mirror of the Culture, 100

Influence on Hollywood,	101
Films of the Period,	102
Books on the Period,	103

6

ART AND DIALECTIC IN THE SOVIET FILM, 1925-1929 104

Historical Setting,	105
Three Silent Masters,	110
Montage: Theory and Practice,	117
Films of the Period,	121
Books on the Period,	122

7

FRENCH IMPRESSIONISTS AND THE AVANT-GARDE, 1919-1929 123

Impressionists,	123
Avant-Garde,	126
Films of the Period,	130
Books on the Period,	131

8

HOLLYWOOD IN THE TWENTIES, 1919-1929 132

Movies Become Big Business,	133
Some Major Directors and Their Films,	136
Popular Genres,	141
Films of the Period,	148
Books on the Period,	149

9

SOUND COMES TO AMERICA, 1927-1935 150

Technological and Economic Problems,	151
Aesthetic Differences,	155
Evolution of Technique,	157
Films of the Period,	162
Books on the Period,	162

10

GOLDEN AGE OF FRENCH CINEMA, 1935-1939 164

- Literary, Theatrical, and Painting Traditions, 167*
Five Major Directors, 168
Reflections of a Troubled Nation, 174
Films of the Period, 177
Books on the Period, 177

11

HOLLYWOOD IN THE THIRTIES, 1929-1939 178

- The Industry, 179*
Censorship, Self-regulation, Pressure Groups, 182
Emergent Genres, 184
Major Directors, 199
Films of the Period, 205
Books on the Period, 206

12

BRITISH WARTIME SEMI-DOCUMENTARIES
AND POSTWAR COMEDIES, 1939-1955 207

- Wartime Semi-Documentaries, 208*
Postwar Comedies, 213
Films of the Period, 215
Books on the Period, 216

13

HOLLYWOOD IN THE FORTIES, 1940-1952 217

- Film Noir, 218*
Realism, 220
Liberalism, Communism, and Anticommunism; the House Un-American Activities Committee and Blacklisting, 222
Six Directors, 225
Films of the Period, 234
Books on the Period, 236

14

ITALIAN NEOREALISM, 1945-1952 237

Three Major Directors, 237Theory, 243Practice, 244Afterwards, 245Films of the Period, 247Books on the Period, 247

15

ASIAN FILM, 1951- 248

Japan, 249India, 264Films of the Period, 268Books on the Period, 270

16

HOLLYWOOD IN TRANSITION, 1952-1962 271

Television, 272New Screen Processes, 274Fall of the Studios and Rise of the Independents, 279Internationalization, 280Loosened Controls on Content, 282Six Directors, 285Films of the Period, 297Books on the Period, 299

17

THE FILM OF THE AUTEUR
AND THE FRENCH NEW WAVE, 1954- 300*Auteurism, 300Three Auteurs, 303New Wave, 311Some Contemporary French Directors, 315Films of the Period, 324Books on the Period, 326*