Research purposes:

The thesis proposed solutions so as to increase investment in the industrial zones in Hanoi. In the thesis, many theoretical and practical issues relating to investment attraction in Hanoi were analyzed. Other factors affecting the City's industrialization and modernization were also discussed. Having looked at the current situation of the investment in Hanoi, the thesis pointed out advantages that the City has and numerous constraints it should improve. Significantly, orientations, perceptions and measures were proposed to increase investment into the industrial zones of Hanoi until 2015.
