

Topic: Application of the model “personal management and leadership” in developing training programs in Viettel Telecom

Sign: LC636

Author: Nguyen Thi Phuong Thao

Major: Business Administration

Publishing year: 2010

Lecturer: Dr. Hoang Van Hai

Content:

Research purposes: To recommend an idea to support training programs on leadership and self-management for Viettel Telecom Company; practical applications for long-term process of research on leadership and self-management training, to spread and develop the training for other organizations.

The paper also assesses the situation of human resources of Viettel Telecom to develop a training program of and leadership and self-management for the company.

Contributions:

The thesis offers a training program of 10 sessions (5 days) on the self-leadership and self-management and leadership for Viettel Telecom Company and widely deployed applications for businesses and leaders of Vietnam.